Pr. Jodi will share her first sermon with us this coming Sunday, January 17th. Please tune into our You Tube channel Sunday morning and check it out! The link is listed below.

Julie is still working on how we can "legally" have our Annual Meeting. As soon as she has it worked out, we will let everyone know. Thank you for your patience.

The newest Christ in Our Home is now available for you to pick up at the church.

Church Cleaning

There are various small cleaning projects that need to get done in the church for which the cleaning crew are not responsible. If you would like to take on one of these projects, please let Lisa know to make arrangements for a good time. Here is a quick list: stain on carpet in sanctuary; spill on concrete by east side glass doors; deep clean kitchen; ac/heater vents; windows on all areas outside and some inside. Most supplies are already at the church.
