Discipleship Through Worship...

WORSHIP UPDATE - We have returned to In-person service and hope this will continue. We request that masks be worn and that you practice social distancing. We hope our care and concern for others outweighs any inconvenience this may cause. Worship is available on Facebook Live and later on You Tube. Links to worship materials are available on the website.

Discipleship Through Christian Education...

Bible Study

Zoom Bible Study - is at 6:30 pm on Mondays

Sunday Morning Bible Study—“Who Do You Say I Am? (From Easter to Pentecost)

Beginning this week, the Sunday Morning Bible Study will begin Part 3 of our series, “Who Do You Say I Am?” This third installment of our series will reflect on key scenes between Easter and Pentecost in which followers of Jesus encounter the Resurrected Christ, explore the meaning the Resurrection, and receive the mission given to his followers during this unique and crucial turning point in human history. We will also look carefully at how the way in which these events are described in the Bible helps those who are familiar with the Bible to answer for ourselves the question, “Who Do You Say I Am?” Please join us for this important journey from the Easter to Pentecost. All are welcome.

May 15	Jesus Appears to His Disciples by the Sea of Galilee (Gospel of John)
May 22	On the Road to Emmaus (Luke)
May 29	Ascension and Commission (Matthew and Luke/Acts)
June 5	Pentecost (Acts)

Discipleship Through Serving

We Need Volunteers: Ushers, Readers, Servers. Altar Care and Communion Help as well as Multimedia and iPad Helpers

Please consider volunteering to fill one of the open positions. Training will be provided in any area you feel called to help. Have a friend who would like to be part of a great church family? Maybe they have just the skills to share - invite them to church!

For multimedia and iPad you can let Jan G. know or call the office. There are sign-up sheets for Ushers, Readers and Servers on the bulletin board to the left of the women’s restroom in the entryway.

Announcements

Reminder: Congregational meeting today after church services and on May 29th. Light lunch will be served. Please try to attend.

Church Council meeting is on May 25th at 6:00pm in the Fireside Room. Light dinner will be served at 5:30pm.

Please use your assigned number when you contribute. We have preprinted envelopes available for your convenience. If you do not know your number, please ask Helen Zenz or Carol Bentz.

Thank you to all who have provided refreshments after Sunday worship service. If you would like to help provide refreshments for future Sundays on the patio, please contact the Evangelism Committee.
